- Article from the Kincardine Review or Goderich Star about Mary McCorvie's Death, published 09 Sep 1920:

Mrs. Ebenezer Fisher

The death on Sunday last of Mrs. Ebenezer Fisher, Newgate St., removed a much loved lady from our midst. She was of a bright cheerful disposition and had a very large circle of friends in town and surrounding country, especially around Benmiller where the family formerly resided. She was in her 82nd year and her death came as a termination of an illness extending over the past three months, during the last five weeks of which three of her daughters (Mrs. Livesay of Niagara Falls; Mrs. A.J. Steward of Coronation, Alta. And Mrs. Hopkin of Atlantic City;) had been with her. Mrs. Fisher had been formerly Miss Mary McCorvie and was born in Toronto. She was married at Benmiller sixty years ago last January to her now bereaved partner. After coming to Goderich they lived here for seventeen years. Subsequently for a similar period they lived in Philadelphia and two years ago, returned to town. Mrs. Fisher's death makes the first break in the family, her husband and family of five daughters and one son surviving. The children not already mentioned are Mrs. (Dr.) A.G. McLeod, Buxton, Eng.; Mrs. E.J. Crawford, Melfort, Sask.; and Secord Fisher of St. Louis. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon to Colborne Cemetery; the service being conducted by Rev. R.C. McDermid and the pallbearers being Messrs. A. Hunter, Wm. Hunter, of Kincardine: Mr. John Oaks and Mr. Wm. Warnock

Mrs. Fisher was for many years a resident of Kincardine and will be remembered by old friends for her sterling character and many kindly qualities.

Children of Ebenezer Fisher and Mary McCorvie:

- i. Anna Louisa<sup>4</sup> Fisher, born in 1859 and married Alexander Gladstone McLeod 15 Jun 1892 in Goderich, Huron, Ontario. He was born in March 15, 1863 in Sutherland, Scotland. He was a member of the Houghton County Medical Association, Ontario State Medical Association and the American Medical Association. From the Physicians, Dentists and Druggist Directory (unknown year, p141) it lists McLeod A G, R (retired?), graduated 1891, living in Calumet, Bellevue (Medical School he graduated from?). From the Detroit Medical Journal around 1905, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. McLeod of Red Jacket have returned from a six months visit to Europe.

- ii. Mary Ann Fisher, born 1862 in Kincardine, Bruce, Ontario and married James A. Copeland 31 Jul 1883, Kincardine, Bruce, Ontario (see Figure 05). He was born in 1860 in Brucefield, Huron, Ontario.
  - From Geni there is a suggestion that: a Robert Copeland born in Manitoba might be a son of this family. The information on him was born January 20, 189 and died October, 1970 in Walla Walla, Washington. His siblings were: Mary Copeland; Hugh Copeland; Donald Copeland; Leila Copeland; Martha Copeland and 1 other
- iii. Sophia Matilda Fisher, born in 1863 and died in 1943. She married John H. Livesey; born in 1862 in Niagara Falls and died in 1943.
