Generation No. 2

Edward² Haacke(Johann¹) was born 08 Sep 1816 in Markham, York, Ontario and died 19 Apr 1894 in Fulton County, Illinois. He married Harriet Porter 09 Mar 1843 in Canton, Illinois. She was born 12 Jan 1821 in Ohio and died 14 Jun 1907 in Whitman County, Washington.

Edward Haacke's family, including sons George, Jesse, Nathaniel and Isaac, and daughter Harriett

The first evidence for the existence of Edward came from some church records at St. James Cathedral (an Anglican Church) in downtown Toronto; he was born 8 Sept., 1816 and baptized 20 May, 1822, the witness was Amelia Peterson (I believe the minister's wife) and Friedrich (?) Peterson. Oddly, only three of Johann's children were baptized here. My guess is that Hannah Adams was Anglican and Johann was Lutheran. Several of the other baptisms of Elisabeth Steffins (the eldest sister of Edward) appear in the earliest Lutheran church records, which Johann witnessed. I never knew what happened to Edward, but assumed he might have died young. Then, on my trip to Lewistown and Canton, Ill., the descendants of David told me that he had a brother Edward. So I checked the land and marriage records; lo and behold I found him in both. He arrived in the late 1830s.

Interestingly enough my last records of Johann in Markham/Toronto area ended about 1831. Then all traces of him vanish. So, did he return to New York? For years, I have been searching for him in vain in the neighborhood of his children, having assumed that he may have retired with them. Not a hint of their doing so. Did he return to New York and live there with his wife's family? Did he join Elisabeth Steffins of whom I lost all contact too about the early 1840s. Perhaps they came with their son Edward to Illinois, although I never found evidence for this.

While I was in Lewistown, I also found the probate for Edward; it contained a list of his children; they had all changed their name to Hickey! No wonder I had never run across any of his descendants in my many searches of all the Haackes in North America! So at last I had a clue, a starting point for the next phase of what was to be a long and time-consuming challenge in locating members of this family. A happy coincidence occurred a few years ago as I found a few of his descendants. Mary Hoegh, a great-granddaughter had been tracing him back to Jo Daviess County, Ill. and lost track of him; she thought the name was Hickey and had no idea that it was Haacke. Once we joined records, everything fit nicely together. She has been a tremendous help in gaining further insight into many important pieces of information.

The primary evidence supporting this Haacke/Hickey connection is the will in Lewistown. Nevertheless, one likes a second proof of concept. This came with a visit in 1986 to the Hickey/Savidge reunion in Atlantic, Iowa – a reunion held by Mary’s parents. Bryon and I both flew out there for a visit and a few days stay that weekend. We started by stopping in Council Bluffs and visiting Estella Wise. Estella, then about 84, had a few old items: one a picture of Hannah Bowden her grandparents (so she thought, but they turned out to be her great-aunt and uncle in Elisabeth, Ill.) and one obituary death notice card for Edward “Haake” (evidently, they had forgotten how to spell their own name by this time!). So here now, in the hands of a Hickey descendant, and in the memory of Estella, for she remembered the name had been changed, was more primary evidence.

Later, in the fall of 1987, Mary Hoegh and I joined forces again, this time in Galena, the county seat of Jo Daviess County. We scoured the records there and discovered that Edward Haacke had still gone by the name Haacke officially until he left in 1869, although on numerous occasions before that, the name had appeared as Hickey. We were to be further excited by the find of another Henry Haacke, perhaps of the vintage of Edward or a little younger. After copying many records pertaining to his land transactions, we found that he was from Russia. He had also been arraigned on charges of misconduct twice. His sentence was to do good in the community. So why did Edward’s family change their names to Hickey and the dad didn’t? Could it be that the “troublemaker Henry” had such a reputation as to affect the Ed Haacke family by innuendo? On a trip to Washington in February 1987, I discovered in the Civil War records a Henry Haacke age 16 enlisted in 1863 and almost immediately wanted for desertion. Again, could it be that this young man was not Ed’s son Henry but this other fellow? Was this other Haacke in any way related closely to Edward through Johann’s European roots? Unknown, but somehow I feel not closely at that time, as there seems to be no connection or correspondence between them at all. The younger Henry does appear to be Edward’s son.

Although I was unable to extract an obituary about Edward from the records, Mary Hoegh wrote to a Mrs. Betty Gibboney of the Fulton County Historical and Genealogical Society who had helped me in the past. She was able to resurrect one from the local newspaper (ref.). It read:

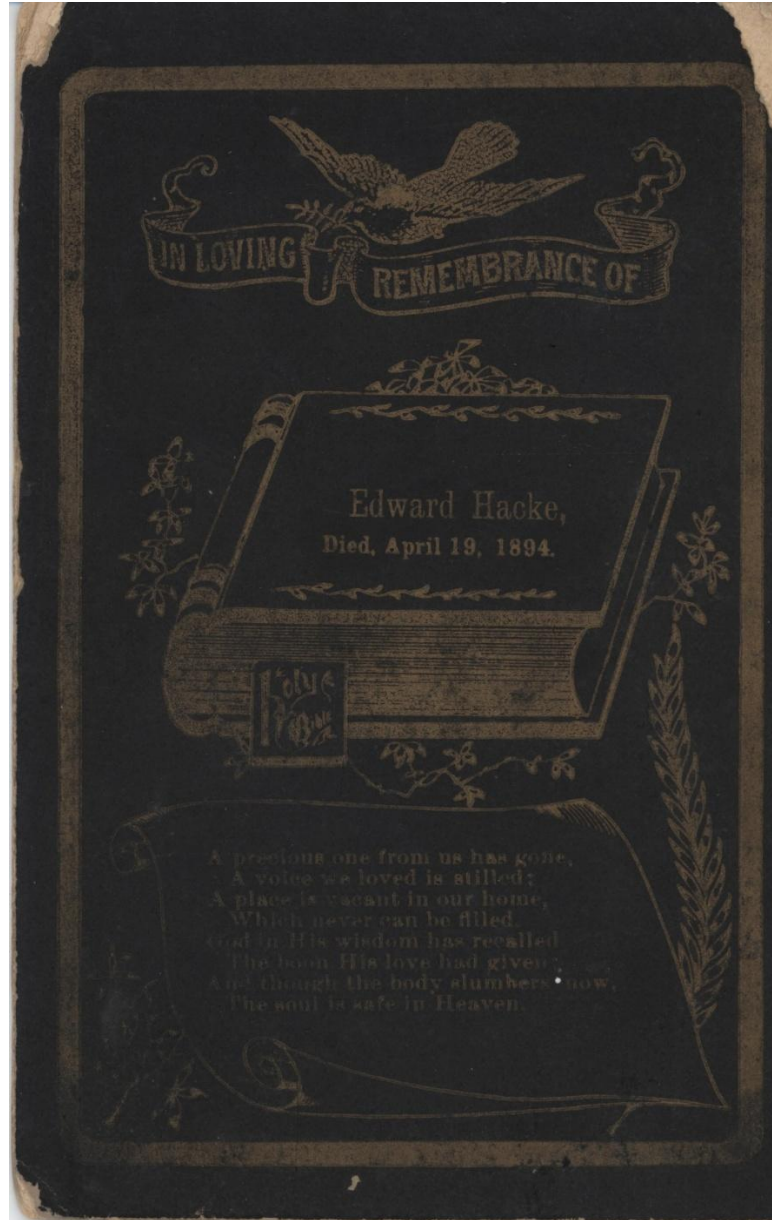

“Death of Edward Haacke”

“Edward Haacke, age 78 years, an old and respected resident of this city and vicinity, died this morning at 9:35 o’clock at his home at 706 South Second avenue. Mr. Haacke was a widower and a brother of the late Capt. David Haacke. He leaves a family of eleven children, all living and married, five of whom live in the state of Washington, two in Nebraska, one in California, a daughter in Jo Davies County, Illinois and Jesse of this city. Mr. Haacke was born in Upper Canada in 1816. While a young man he came to this county and has lived here since, excepting about 7 years when he was in Iowa. The funeral will occur on Saturday, April 21, at 10 o’clock a.m. from the late residence. The remains will be interred at Mason cemetery, about three and a-half miles west of this city.”

This obituary deserves an in-depth review, statement by statement. First, let me point out that the spelling and punctuation has been taken verbatim directly from the newspaper article. He was born 8 Sept. 1816 in Markham, Ontario. His baptism appears in the Anglican Church records as revealed earlier. He had eleven children, yes, but David died 29 Oct. 1892. His children are listed in the probate to receive his share. Perhaps they all were married, but I have to date not been able to trace all the children. From the probate, the children may have lived as follows: Hannah in Birch Tree, MO (although I was under the impression that this was Hannah Bowden and they lived in Jo Daviess Co.); Henry in Oakesdale; George in Oakesdale; David in Oakesdale; Elisabeth in St. Johns; and perhaps Isaac in Oakesdale; Harriett in Sidney; Nathaniel in Sidney; Edward in Omaha; and Jesse in Canton. Although this does not totally jive with the obituary, it is close. Perhaps Nathaniel or Harriett lived in Omaha too, to work there or the like. Edward lived in Jo Daviess Co. after he married in Canton; then he went to Sidney, and only then did he return to Canton (Perhaps after a schism with his wife and the rest of the family?). His interment was mentioned to be in Mason cemetery, but the location described that of the Blackaby-

Saunders cemetery (at least as it is referred to today). There is no stone for Edward there, but Masons are buried here as is Capt. David Haacke and many of his family. Now, the fact that Jesse had remained with him also explains why Estella had the death notice card and why she remembered about the name change. Further, if the story is right, it does not say that Edward came with his folks to Ill.; hence, maybe they went back to New York or stayed with Elisabeth Steffins, wherever she may have gone.

Remembrance card from the time of Edward Haacke's death

Poem on card reads: "A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled. God in His wisdom has recalled The boon His love had given; And though the body slumbers now, The soul is safe in Heaven."

An interesting note about Edward's wife Harriett concerns the sale of his home in Canton after his death. For some reason, although perhaps not officially divorced, he seems to have lived away from Harriett at the end. A notice in the paper reads:

STATE OF ILLINOIS
FULTON COUNTY

In the County Court, June Term, A.D. 1896
In the matter of Jesse Hickey, admr. of the] Petition to sell real Estate of Edward Hickey estate to pay debts deceased vs Harriett Hickey, et al

Dated this 25th day of June A.D. 1896.

W. H. Boyer, Clerk, C. J. Main, Compt's Sol.

From the State of Illinois court records, W. H. Boyer certifies that he sent by mail a copy of the said notice to Edward Hickey and Nathaniel Hickey defendants, at Sidney, Fremont County, Iowa on 9 July 1896.

Continuing in this vein, when Edward died he had no will. Jesse was allowed to be the administrator by his mother. All those owing him money were to come to the Probate and pay up 5 Sep 1894. Notice was given 17 July 1894.

27 August, 1894 a list of items and their value in dollars included:

- jewels and family pictures 30
- sheep 12
- books 100
- horse 25
- sewing machine 35
- money for one year to widow 250
- beds 50
- food for stock for half year 100
- stoves 55
- fuel for widow quarter year 10
- household 100
- other 100
- cows 35

- total 952

- lot 399 Wright's Addition in Canton 500
- one-half interest in 390 650
- lot 406 500

How does this list differ from the one below? Is the later one less than this because people have taken some things away? And, of course, the infamous family photo album!!!!

Now Harriett had a lawyer in 1897 and likely earlier; he was W. C. Warly. The final settlement was to be 1 Feb 1897 in Sidney, Iowa.

Under wills and estates, there appears to be granted to Harriett Hickey $1500, from where I am not sure. Her guardian or the money's guardian was Walter B. White. Signed by J. T. Hodges 12 May 1897

Again in the state of Iowa, Fremont County, 12 May 1897 "an aged and infirmed woman of unsound mind" witnessed by N. Hickey, R. S. Tate Judge of 15th Judicial District of South Iowa, heard 28 Apr 1897. N might be for Nora (although at this point I would guess Nathaniel). Money and credit was to be cared for by Walter B. White as guardian.

So where did Harriett go from here? According to Mary Hoegh she was not in the 1900 census. Did she go out west? The records of Gertrude Hamblen show her staying with her daughter Elizabeth in St. Johns, Wash. She also gives her birth date as 12 Jan 1821 and her death as 14 Jun 1907 in Washington. It would be very useful to obtain an obituary for her, as this would give the location of her children at that time. From the estate papers, the articles in Edward's possession as of Sep 1894 were:

- cook stove 3.00
- 1 heating stove 6.00
- 1 cupboard 1.50
- 1 gable 1.70
- 1 set of dishes 2.50
- 1 lot of knives and forks 0.50
- 1 lot glassware 0.20
- 1 silver chalice 1.00
- 2 rocking chairs 1.00
- 2 bedstead and bedding 20.00
- 3 headlamps 0.50
- 1 stand 0.20
- 1 clock 1.00
- 1 chest 0.10
- 1 trunk 0.50
- 1 small cupboard 0.20
- 2 tubs 0.50
- 1 washboard 0.10
- 25 yard carpet 2.50
- cooking utensils 1.00
- 1 coal bucket 0.10
- 2 flat irons 0.20
- 1 wash pan 0.20
- 1 bread pan 0.10
- 1 horse 5.00

- total 49.70

- lot 399 Wright's Addition in Canton 500
- one-half interest in 390 650
- lot 406 500

Now his daughter and son-in-law sold him lot 406 and 415 in 1889 for $300. Is that when he moved back there? Where was he in the 1890 census? He has sold his land in 1869 in Jo Daviess Co., Ill. and bought land in Iowa in 1869. He appears in the 1870 Iowa census. In 1843 he had married Harriett Porter, probably in the Canton area. So going forward this time his schedule looks something like this:

born Markham, Ontario, Canada 1816 baptized Toronto 1822 lived Markham/Vaughan to 1836 lived Canton area to 1845 lived Jo Daviess Co. to 1869
 lived Sidney to 1889?
 lived Canton to his death 1894

From the records of Mrs. Estella Wise comes the obituary card for Edward "Haake":

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF
 Edward Haake
 Died April 19, 1894

A precious one from us has gone,
 A voice we loved is stilled:
 A place is vacant in our home,
 Which never can be filled.
 God in his wisdom has recalled
 The boon his love has given:
 And though the body slumbers now,
 The soul is safe in Heaven.

The 1850 census of Elizabeth Township, Jo Daviess County, Ill. gives (possibly page 192):
 dwelling 1470, family 1474; land valued at $800.00

- Edward 35 origin Canada
- Harriett 25 Ohio
- Hannah 7 Illinois
- Henry 4 Illinois
- Edward 2 Illinois

The 1860 census of Derinda Township reveals: house no. 3886; family no. 4022; names of people living at this place 1 June 1860 under Hickey:

Edward	38	M	Farmer	$3585	$1100	Canada
Harriett	28	F				Ohio
Henry	13					Illinois
Hannah	15				"
Edward	11					"
Elizabeth	8					"
Harvey	6					"
David	4					"
Harriet	1					"

The Iowa 1870 census of Sidney, 10th day of August, 1870 shows for household 43 under Hickey (family 43):

Edward	50	Farmer	$4000	$1500	Canada
Harriett	48	keeping house			Ohio
Hannah	26	housework			Illinois
Henry	24	works on farm			Illinois
Edward	21	works on farm			Illinois
Elisabeth	19	housework			Illinois
Harvey	17	works on farm			Illinois
David	13	works on farm			Illinois
Harriett	10	at home			Illinois
Isaac	8	at home		Illinois
George	6	at home		Illinois
Vandalia	4	at home		Iowa
Jesse	2	at home		Iowa

The Iowa 1880 census reveals for Fremont Co., Riverton Twp. on 12 July, house 120, 124:

Edward	65		agriculture	Can	Ger	Scot
Harriett	50	wife	housekeeping	Pa
Isaac	18	son	at home	Ill	Can	Pa
Fannie	12		at home	Ill	Can	Pa
Jesse	11	son	at home	Ill	Can	Pa

Note the discrepancy between this and the last census. This census may have been more accurate than the 1870 census. It's time to check the 1890 census of Fulton Co. for David and Edward.

When Edward first arrived in Fulton County in 1836, he bought land from his brother David (see David's chapter for a copy of this document). He bought it for $25 and then sold it to Joel Solomon 28 July 1837.

After he married Harriett Porter, they must have decided to strike off on their own. Edward Haacke is listed (book V of D, pages 359-361) as having U.S. patents on 1 Oct., 1845 for NE1/4 of SW1/4 S9 R3E; 1 March, 1848 of SE1/4 of SE1/4 S9 R3E; same date for SE1/4 of SW1/4 S9; and on page 361 from Joseph Spitter on 15 Oct., 1852 for $50 land in T26 R3E. In book E/M page 287 for WE1/4 of SW1/4 of T26 R3E for an instrument of deed trust 16 Oct., 1853 from Joseph Spitter in consideration of $100 (here Ed is given as Hickey). Another early document from C of M page 420 for Edward Hacke (owes) to William Oliver mortgage on 7 March, 1846 for $110. In these early records, his name is spelled Haake, Hacke, Haakey, and Hickey. In one U.S. patent it is even written in twice incorrectly as Benjamin Haacke! Then in 1861 in S/M 16 Aug., a mortgage to George H. Schlump pages 586 and 588 for goods and chattel for $150 and $200, respectively. The last record for Ed is to Elizabeth Neison WD 12 Feb., 1869 book 28 of D, page 615 for $4,000. This was for NE1/4 of SE1/4 of section 9, T26 R3E, filed 2 June, 1869. According to the platt maps, this land was quite close to Derinda Center. The total acreage was 239, more or less. Both Edward and Harriett have a mark only. And off they went to Iowa. They appear to have been in Jo Daviess County for the birth of all their children (no church records have been searched from that area yet) from 1845 to 1869, 25 years inclusive.

On 7 Sep 1869 Edward bought land for $1500 from Nicholas, Delila his wife and Joseph Hiatt Jr. 125 2/3 acres in NW1/4 of N8 in township 68 range 41. His name appears as Edward Hickey. Later, on 6

Oct., 1874, for $400 he buys (deed filed) NW of SW1/4 S8 T68 NR41 with 40 acres from Jacob and Sommerville Peter (book S page 525). Then he received a quit claim from the board of supervisors for the NE1/4 of the SW of S8 T68 R41 8 Jan., 1875 (page 636 book S). Next comes the NW1/4 of SW1/4 for $400 from Abraham Travis on 14 June, 1881 (book L page 251). Again Edward Hickey puts his mark but now beside the name of Hickey (book 3, page 9). what appears to be the last transaction for Ed here in Fremont County, he sells his land to his son George E. and his wife Grace Hickey. The land was sold for $3000; $1,000 was for personal property to be delivered with the land (NW1/4 and N1/2 of SW1/4 S8 T68 R41) containing 205 2/3 acres dated 26 January 1887.

Back in the City of Canton, in the year 1889, when Ed was 73, he bought lots 406 and 415 in Wright's Addition to the town now city of Canton for $300. He purchased it from his daughter Hannah Bowden and his son-in-law Benjamin Bowden. The deed reads Edward Hickey of the city of Canton; No. 97188 of book 157 dated 29 April 1889 and filed 24 July 1889.

From some notes sent to me by Dorothy Hinman, written by her father David Hickey:

"suppose if I ever wrote a book it would have to be called "THE HOOK". That may be a peculiar name for a book, but it resulted from the lasting impression an old friend made upon me when I was a boy and he was relating to me what he said he knew about my grandfather. From what he related, my grandfather came to the United States from Canada practically on the run. Whether he was trying to escape from the law or vengeance of some relatives of his victims, my informer did not state. He stated my grandfather changed his name completely and never was in trouble after arriving in the United States. At least a part of his disposition must have remained in his system, as he refused to allow his children to attend school in the belief that they could get along without education since he himself had no "book larnin".

He had a hook on his right arm, which replaced his right hand, which had been lost in a sawmill accident. This hook was a terrible weapon when he was aroused. Using it as a club, he could knock a man out with a blow to the side of the head, or, if the circumstances warranted, he could use it to tear a man's throat to pieces as he may have done in two cases cited by the informant. This has been a deterring factor all my life to losing my temper and has probably saved me several times from being on the wrong side of the law.

My father [his dad was John and his granddad was Nathaniel; Edward was Nathaniel's father] did not accept the fast law laid down by my grandfather and ran away from home at the age 17 to enter first grade. It must have taken a lot of courage for him to be in classes with six year olds. I believe he must have met my mother about that time and she must have influenced him to go to school to at least learn to read and write. I can well remember his figuring so much in his head and coming up with the right answers. His native intelligence could not be held in check by his lack of formal education and had not lady luck dealt him a below the belt by taking away his sight at age 33, I have no doubt he would have made financial success during his lifetime even though such thoughts were far from his mind. My grandfather had homesteaded on 640 acres of the richest land in Southwest Iowa. My father used to tell me of the battles against the elements and old man river. The river then was a meandering stream at times, then would change its character to a raging torrent at flood time and my father and the rest of the children would have to tie the farm implements to trees to keep them from washing away, they would then run for higher ground until the flood subsided.

This was a battle for survival and only those survived who knew how to make the best and safest decisions at the right time. Truly pioneers in a new Country. My father knew when certain cloud formations appeared, they spelled [this is the only page I have from David's notes, and I assume it continues from here].

What can be ascertained through the eyes of a youth and the exaggerations that may have followed and then been distorted over the years by someone remembering them half a century later? Edward appears in 1836 in Canton. Did he run away from Ontario? The MacKenzie rebellion was at this time. Some people were prosecuted and exiled from Ontario. I never found any records of Edward Haacke. The point about education is interesting. His sister Mary Anne and his brother George could both write (at least sign their names) as could his father, Johann (and a pretty signature it was too). Nevertheless, he never did sign his name, and it may be for that reason that he let the name slip to Hickey. I also wonder if the record of this Heinrich Haacke in Jo Daviess who had been arraigned for rough housing had filtered down through stories about how their name got changed to avoid confusion with another family and then become mistakenly associated with Edward himself! One clearly wonders about whom this grandfather is since Nathaniel was born in the U.S. and was the son of Edward. Could Nathaniel have been the one with the metal hand?

The business about going blind at age 33 is similar to another Haacke member, David Haacke (son of Henry) who lived in Montana. Was it common to get glaucoma and go blind then? Edward had owned only just over 200 acres of land in Fremont County. He had not homesteaded, but bought it as shown above from someone else.

When Edward first arrived in Fulton County in 1836, he bought land from his brother David (see David's chapter for a copy of this document). He bought it for $25 and then sold it to Joel Solomon 28 July 1837.

"Long Time Citizen Called"

Nathaniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hickey, was born January 8, 1867 at Greenlee, Illinois. He passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Warren Booten, in Sidney, July 22, 1933, aged 66 years, 6 months and 14 days. He came with his parents at the age of two years to Fremont county where he resided all his life with the exception of two years spent in Washington. Mrs. Hickey was one of a family of twelve children, seven of whom survive: Lizzie Hamlin of St. John, Washington; Harriet Miller and Isaac of Sidney; Jess of Council Bluffs; George of Oakdale, California; Edward of Nebraska; Harvey of Stockton, California.

September 30, 1888, he was married to Lenna May Rowe. Four children were born to this union, Lucy Booten of Sidney; John of Thurman; Myrtle Guinotte of Omaha; David R. of Louisville, Kentucky. Besides these four children he leaves sixteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Mrs. Hickey departed this life seven years ago.

Mr. Hickey had known much physical suffering. When in his 30's he was blind for four years. He had endured two serious operations several years before his last illness. Although suffering these handicaps, he never ceased to press forward determined to make the best of life.

He embraced the Christian faith in early manhood and his hope in a triumphant tomorrow was the comfort of his last hours. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and he had served as a faithful janitor for several years in both the Methodist and Presbyterian churches. This service he counted not simply as a means of livelihood, but to him the keeping of God's house was a sacred trust.

Rev. C. A. Speagh conducted funeral services Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, following which interment was made in Sidney cemetery.
