John David Haacke and Zilpha Edna Locke

John David Haacke (George², Johann¹) was born 20 Feb 1854 in Markham Township, York, Ontario. He married Zilpha Edna Locke, daughter of Levi Locke and Almeda Briggs, 13 Sep 1876 in Arthur Township, Wellington, Canada. She was born 14 Apr 1854/1856 in Speaker Township, Sanilac, Michigan and died 20 Jun 1935 in Port Huron, St. Clair, Michigan. John David died 23 Mar 1929 in Port Huron, St. Clair, Michigan. Both John David and Zilpha were buried in Lakeside Cemetery in Port Huron, St. Clair, Michigan.

I wonder if John David received some of the money from the sale of land from George's estate because all his children were born in Markham and then he leaves for Port Huron, Michigan. What took him there, land, a job, better opportunities?

Exactly how Zilpha met John David we may never know. Zilpha was born on April 14, 1856, in Speaker Township, Sanilac, Michigan. She married John when she was 20 years old. They went to Markham, York, Ontario. Her first child, George Lee was born two years later on January 12, 1878 and died on February 14, 1878.

On March 19, 1979 she gave birth to Mildred Lizetta. Mildred went on to have two children and lived until July 26, 1946.

On March 29, 1881, Zilpha gave birth to Eli Edgar. Eli died on August 31, 1896 and is buried in the Quantztown (sometimes called Haacke) cemetery in Markham, Ontario.

She then had John David, 1883, Lawson, 1885 Walter, 1887, Joseph, 1889 and Clara in 1892.

On March 5, 1896 my grandmother Myrtle was born.

On August 31, 1896, they lost their son Eli.

On September 18, 1896 with seven children, from six months to seventeen years old they arrived in Michigan via the Grand Trunk Railroad. I am very moved by the strength that she possessed. I am not taking anything any from John David. I am looking at this from the side of a mother. Within six months she gave birth to my grandmother, buried a child and packed all her belongs and along with her husband came back to Michigan.

Cause of Death: Apoplexy Myocarditis

Mother-Daughter Brides Of Today

Miss Dorothy Sorensen, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Sorensen, Twenty-sixth street, became the bride of Ernest W. Bambusch, son of Antoine Bambusch, Stockach, Germany, this morning in the rectory of St. Joseph's Roman catholic church. Rev. Fr. Thomas A. Connell, pastor read the marriage services.

Raymond Ott and Miss Ida Bambusch were attendants.

A wedding breakfast was served in the summer home of Otto Kerns, North River road, from a table centered with an attractively decorated wedding cake. White daisies and fern also decorated the table there the 20 guests were seated.

The bride wore a white suit with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of roses and valley lilies.

After a wedding trip the couple will [reside] on Twenty-sixth street where their home is in readiness for them.

Mrs. Sorensen, the mother of the bride, will marry Hiram Palmateer, Yale, this evening in the rectory of First Congregational church. Rev. Jonathan Turner will read the ceremony.

Myrtle wrote me multiple times. She remembered that her grandfather had put some land aside for her father in Markham. She recalled there were 5 sisters. But she could not remember much more. It's too bad she couldn't see all the documents I now have on her family and the previous generations.

Mother-Daughter Brides Article:

Joseph Albert Haacke (John David³, George², Johann¹): 01 Apr 1889 – 18 Apr 1956 (Born in Markham, York, Ontario; died in Fort Worth, Texas. He married (1) Martha Francis Wallace circa 1908. He married (2) Elnora Jeanette Dunaway Reed 12 Mar 1938 in Pasadena, Texas). He was an artist.

In 1920 he is listed in Tacoma, Pierce, Washington with wife Martha and she is from Kentucky. It lists Joe as a painter. Roll T625 1936, page 7a, ed 247, Image 0169.

Joseph is listed in the 1930 census roll T626 2345 page 38B, enumeration district 53, image 0522 with wife Martha F. from Texas. He is listed as a painter. He lived in Florida in the 1920s and then moved to Texas.

He is buried Blair Cemetery, Timpson, Shelby, Texas.

Myrtle married five times. Four marriages were very short. I only knew one, Donald Skottegard, her last husband. She divorced him after about five years of marriage. My grandfather, Elvin Sorensen, I never knew. They divorced when my mother was 3 years old. She didn't see her father again until she was she was about 20 years old. There was very little talk of her dad or her half-brother. Recently, I have found her half-brother, Elvin, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He is married with seven kids.

My impression of my grandmother was a very independent, fun loving and adventurous woman. She worked at a laundry and raised her daughter until she remarried about 1924 to Milford Gardner. My mother told me a story of a time when she was going through her mother's dresser to find clothes to play with. She pulled out what she thought was a sheet. It turned out it was a uniform for Milford for the KKK. Grandma didn't stay married to him very long.

She is listed with her mother in the 1930 census in Port Huron, Michigan. So she must have divorced Milford before this time. Her father had died in 1929. Her mother past away in 1935. The family was all in Port Huron at the time of their father's death. From pictures I have they seem to have spent a lot of time together. There are travels across the country and picnics. Grandma married Hiram Palmateer in 1937 and moved to Yale, Michigan. They lived there for 15 years until his death in 1952. Shortly thereafter, Grandma went to live in Florida. Her sister Clara was living in St. Petersburg, Florida. I am not sure why Clara went to Florida at this time but when I find her family I will check into it. Myrtle met James Ramsbottom and married him in the early 1950's. I remember Grandma coming to Michigan to visit and she was married to Jim at the time. About this time, she bought a bar and named it the Dreamland Bar. Grandma could play pool very well. We lived next door to a bar in Detroit and each time she came to Detroit my dad and her would go in there. At some time during their stay Grandma would ask someone to play pool with her. No matter how good the person, usually this was a man, she would beat him. They were always surprised to be beat a little old grandma in her 60's. My dad would sit back and laugh at these guys, telling them they should never think an old lady couldn't beat them. I remember walking her around the neighborhood showing her off and showing her the places where my friends lived, my school, stores and the playground. We would get ice cream in the one store and walk for what seemed forever. Really it was about ten blocks. I thought then I didn't want my OLD grandma walking so much. She was in her early 60's now that I am 50 I don't think that is old any longer. Funny how we looked at age and other things at different times of our lives. I have a picture of her on a snowmobile in her 70's and one with her on a motorcycle when she was in her late 70's.

Grandma stayed in Florida until 1973 when she came back to Port Huron and got an apartment. She said that was to be her last home. She was right. She was there until she fell one night and broke her hip in August of 1985. She died at Port Huron Hospital and is buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Yale Michigan. She is buried with her third husband, Hiram Palmateer, she was married to him the longest. I called my sister and asked her what came to mind about grandma. She said she remember she had a glass eye, smoked a lot and owned a bar. My sister married very young so there are not a lot of recent memories. She thinks that grandma had bouts with cancer and that is why grandma had a glass eye. I do remember that grandma had throat cancer and had a breast removed because of cancer.

In 1971, I visited John Leslie when they lived at 2713 Minnie Street in Port Huron, Michigan. Phone 928-9258. He wrote me, "I received your letter and will be delighted to meet you on Thursday, July 18th. Have talked to most of the relatives and will have those who can make it at my house that day." I visited them and met Myrtle Skottegard and others and of course John and his wife Laura. She took me into the back of the kitchen that warm summer's day and said please don't tell these kids their dad was married once before. We chatted outside along the grass and sidewalk. Later in the afternoon the kids were going to go swimming and they asked me to come and I thought it would be a good idea to join them and establish a relationship. The water was very warm for Lake Huron and we had a very good time. However, I never did get to know them better as time went by. However, John had asked me to join him in a game of chess and I said I would like to join his kids swimming instead. I wish I could have done both at the same time.

Edsel Jay William Werner (Ruby Lizetta⁵ Allen, Mildred Lizetta⁴ Haacke, John David³, George², Johann¹) was born 14 Oct 1921 in Ray, North Dakota and died 11 Nov 2004 in Port Huron, St. Clair, Michigan. He married Lillian Irene Runk 07 Apr 1944 in Toledo, Ohio. She was born 12 Oct 1926 in Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

More about Edsel Jay William Werner:

Clipping from newspaper probably from the Times Herald, Port Huron, Michigan Newspaper:

Pvt. Ed Werner, son of Mrs. George Hand and Frank Werner, Port Huron, who enlisted in the Army in January 1942, is now stationed in England. He is an aerial gunner. He received his diploma in Las Vegas, Nev. He has been in England two months.

Just Like Shooting Ducks Over Lake Huron

Sergt. Edsel J. Werner, 21, son of Mrs. Ruby Hand, 921 Eighth street, and Frank J. Werner, 2208 Twenty-sixth street, recited today at his base in North Africa how the American Flying Fortress raid on the Italian port of Sardinia was "just like shooting ducks."

Sergeant Werner, a ball turret gunner, is quoted in a dispatch from Allied headquarters as saying he was amazed at the lack of enemy planes.

"It was the best seat I ever had for any show" the Port Huron youth said. "I'll bet the Eyties (Italians) are still in their air raid shelters. I saw thousands of bombs bursting all over Cagliari harbor and I called up to my pilot and said: 'Lieutenant, this is just like shooting ducks' and he replied, ' You'd better keep at your guns.' I said, 'Hell, Lieutenant, I just knocked off a Regianai 2001, and that ain't no duck.'

Sergeant Werner, who enlisted in the Army Air forces in January, 1942, received his gunnery training at Las Vegas, Nev. He was sent overseas in June, 1942.

'Nothing To Tell' Says Much-Decorated Hero dated July 31, 1943

If you like your heroes modest, look up Sergt. Edsel J. Werner. But don't hold much hope of finding him.

If he thinks you want to talk about him and how he got all these medals, he will avoid you and he has a particular talent for it. The nearest a times Herald reporter with such a purpose could get to him was just near enough to hear him say he has "nothing to tell." Then he was gone.

Nothing to tell? The collection of papers, pictures and souvenirs that he brought with to the home of his mother, Mrs. Ruby Hand, 2100 Farrand Street, belie it.

There is, for instance, that paper which lists 52 missions the flying sergeant was on, the list reading like a postal guide to Italian cities. And another paper that tells of his having received the Air Medal with three Oak Clusters, and having been recommended to receive the Distinguished Flying Cross and seven more Oak Leaf Clusters. The paper mentions things about courage, character, skill.

The picture and souvenirs indicate even more strongly that the reticent young airman has plenty to tell, if he wanted to. There are photographs, taken from the air that show smoke billowing up from docks and buildings a battered-ridden bomber that couldn't possibly have come in on much more than a wing and a prayer. A song has been written about it; of course, you know which one. Sergeant Werner was a member of the crew.

The souvenirs include a piece of flak; an Italian pistol; a watch of German make; the handle that produced such a terrifying moment when it came off the door of a Flying Fortress ball turret, (Sergeant Werner is a ball turret gunner, and the bomber was in flight when the handle came off); francs and unfamiliar coins.

Sergeant Werner, 21, is spending a 30-day furlough here with his mother, his father, Mr. Frank J. Werner, 921 Eighth street, and his sister, Mrs. Lee Morley.

As of March 2004, I spoke with Lillian Werner, Ed's wife. Ed was in Marwood Manor in Port Huron and suffering from Parkinson and Alzheimer's.

Edsel J. "Ed" Werner

PORT HURON -- Mr. Edsel J. "Ed" Werner, 83, of Port Huron, met his Lord and Savior face to face on Thursday, November 11, 2004 (Veteran's Day).

He was born October 14, 1921 to Frank and Ruby Werner in Ray, North Dakota. The family moved to Port Huron shortly after and Ed lived here all of his life.

Ed served his country during World War II as a ball turret gunner on B17 Flying Fortresses and B24 Liberator Bombers. Ed served two separate tours of duty overseas with a total of 99 missions. The first tour was in 1942-43 in North Africa where he flew 52 bombing missions before being returned to the states for rest and recuperation. During that year, on April 7, 1944 in Toledo, Ohio, he married Lillian Runk of Port Huron. Ed returned to his second tour of duty in June of 1944 and was stationed in England, where he flew 47 more missions until VE Day (Victory in Europe). He was credited with shooting down two enemy planes and was awarded two Distinguished Flying Crosses, the Air Medal with 15 Oak Leaf Clusters, the Good Conduct Medal and the European Theater of War and North Africa Campaign ribbons with medals to follow.

In 1995, the Yankee Air Museum of Willow Run, Michigan toured the country with a B17 Flying Fortress, a B24, and a Military Cargo Plane with a stopover at St. Clair County Airport. Ed visited the airport and when the museum personnel heard of Ed's war history and seeing his Air Force papers showing proof of the number of missions and medals claimed, the pilot stated Ed was going to fly one more mission (non-combat) on the "Yankee Lady," the Fortress that was touring. Ed boarded the plane and was flown to the Yankee Air Force Museum. Later, Ed was pleased to receive a certificate from them for completion of 100 missions.

As a young man, Ed enjoyed scuba diving, coin collecting and gardening. Later in life, walking the Edison Park before becoming disabled, watching the freighters on the St. Clair River, and bird feeding. He especially loved talking about his family and much-loved Springer Spaniel, Queen, and his dearest little Schnauzer, Schatzi. He enjoyed being served breakfast daily at 24th Avenue Big Boy by his four "lovies," Annie, Stacy, Molly and Erin.

Ed retired from Chrysler Corporation after 35 years of service. He was a member of the Port Huron Assembly of God Church where he served many years as a deacon and usher. He liked greeting the parishioners and was known by many as "Uncle Ed."

In later years, he attended Colonial Woods Missionary Church with his wife and family.

Ed is survived by his wife of sixty years, Lillian; six children, David Werner of Port Huron, Sondra (Keith) Bricker of Fort Gratiot, Michael (Gay) Werner of Rochester Hills, Patti (Craig) Lippert of Port Huron, Cynthia (Ronald) Raines of Wales, and Nanci Jane (Thomas) Coleman of Fort Gratiot; 10 grandchildren; six great grandchildren; a brother, Robert (Linda) Werner of Burtchville; seven sisters, Jane Morley of Normal, Illinois, Frances Vought, Beverly (William) Green and Pamela (Jesse) Garza, all of Kimball Township, Betty Edwards of Burtchville, Barbara (Nicholas) Nickoloff of Pensacola, Florida, and Diane Baker of Port Huron; and many beloved nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Ruby Dolan; his father and stepmother, Frank and Helen Werner; and two sisters, Ann Way and Carol Werner.

Visitation will be 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday in Pollock-Randall Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. on Monday, November 15, 2004 in Pollock-Randall Funeral Home. The Reverend Kenneth R. Norcross will officiate.

Burial will be in Woodland Cemetery, Port Huron Township.

Pallbearers will be Keith Bricker, Ronald Raines, Thomas Coleman, William Green, Brandon Lippert, and Robert Werner. Honorary Pallbearers will be Timothy Morley and Mark Hesseling.
